Sox Falls Farm Show Set to Open for the 23rd Year!

Sioux Falls, South Dakota – The Sioux Falls Farm Show is set for January 22, 23, & 24, with more than 320 exhibitors featuring over 1000 agricultural products and services. The annual three day event is expected to bring over 18,000 ag producers from South Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa, and Nebraska.

Exhibits to Fill the Denny Sanford Premier Center, Convention Center & Arena

The Sioux Falls Farm Show features commercial agriculture exhibits at the Denny Sanford Premier Center (event center, convention center, & arena). Exhibits are open each day from 9am-4pm and free coffee and rolls are served each morning from 8:30-10:00am in the Sioux Falls Arena. Attendees can plan their visit by viewing the list of exhibitors and interactive floor plan at www.SiouxFallsFarmShow.com and following the event on Facebook. WNAX will also be broadcasting live from the Show each day.

Daily Ag Seminars from SDSU Extension, DTN and More

In addition to agricultural exhibits, SDSU Extension Services will be presenting free seminars each day of the show at 1:30pm at the Convention Center. A new speaker and agricultural topic will be featured each day. Also, DTN/The Progressive Farmer will present a daily seminar titled, Early Crop Price Outlook for 2020, presented by DTN Grains Analyst, Todd Hultmann. The DTN seminar is free to attend and starts at 11:00am at the Convention Center. A complete seminar schedule will be posted at the show website.
